An organization promoting the French language and culture.

The Alliance Française promotes the French language and the Francophone culture by:

- Offering all levels of French classes.
- Recognizing achievement in the French language by annually providing student book awards to middle and high school students from the Greater Hartford area.

- Granting a scholarship to a deserving Greater Hartford area high school student.
- Promoting cultural programs in French and English. They include: literary, historical, and political lectures; conversations and reading groups; dramatic performances; musical programs, films; art exhibits, and trips.

- Co-sponsoring programs with other Alliance Française chapters, the World Affairs Council, the Wadsworth Athenaeum, Trinity College, among others.
- Offering different kinds of memberships: Basic, Silver, Gold, and Platinum.

All AFH members receive a bi-monthly newsletter with information on upcoming classes, programs, and special events.

Members choosing a Silver membership have discounted rates; Gold and Platinum levels are given free entry to many of the programs and events—with the exception of dinner/restaurant programs and fundraisers.

AFH students paying the Basic rate also receive free entry to AFH programs with the exceptions mentioned above.
