

Van Gogh Tour-Film-Talk: “Loving Vincent”

Join us at the Wadsworth Atheneum on Saturday, February 17th for a unique art experience. The Alliance Française de Hartford and the Alliance Française de New Haven are joining to have a textured and multi-faceted afternoon centered around the Dutch artist, Vincent Van Gogh, who settled in Arles, France towards the end of his life. First, there will be a docent-led talk on the “Self-Portrait” in the Wadsworth Atheneum. This will be followed by viewing the amazing animated film called “Loving Vincent.” Then we will walk down the hill to Ted’s Montana Grill, 35 Front Street, Hartford, Ct. Our good friend Clay Howe will lead a discussion on the film. You can order food and beverages (separate checks).

Laz Parking Garage at 40 Front Street (Columbus Blvd to Arch Street to Front Street, across from new UCONN building). Take tickets to be validated at Atheneum and you will only pay $3.00

Schedule:

1:00 – Meet in main entrance of Wadsworth Atheneum (the Gothic building on Main street).

1:15 – Gallery tour to see the “Self-Portrait.” (circa 1887)

2:00 – Viewing of movie in theater “Loving Vincent” (made with oil painted animation, 2017)

Around 3:45 or so (movie lasts for 90 minutes and they always have previews) – move to Ted’s Montana Grill.

Around 5:00 Adjourn

Prices:

The Gallery tour is included in the price of the movie. The Alliances are not charging. You buy whatever you prefer from the café menu.

$9.00 Non-members of the Wadsworth Atheneum

$8.00 Students and Seniors (62+)

$7.00 Members of the Wadsworth Atheneum

To reserve a spot, please call Linda Zabor, Director of the Alliance Française de Hartford at: 860-278-9999 or email her at: dirafh@gmail.com